Mount Saint Joseph Academy Rutland, Vermont 1973

Editor's Note

PAM CONWAY

As we looked back over our four years at M.S.J. in preparation for the editing of this yearbook, we realized that we have not just four years, but the entire history of the school behind us. Through the work of many dedicated people, Mount Saint Joseph has become more than a high school. It is a tradition.

We would like to pause a moment to express our gratitude to all those people who have worked so hard to build M.S.J. We would also like to thank the staff and advisors of the yearbook for giving us the opportunity to express the sincere hope that the M.S.J. tradition will continue.

ROW 1: J. Crowley, J. Castle, P. Conway, K. Crosby, M. Young. ROW 2: A. Geddes, S. Barrett, J. Dauphinais, B. Gillam. Cover by J. Castle.

ROW 1: M. Pratice, L. DeBlasio. ROW 2: M. Henderson, S. Ettori, S. Medlin, J. Stafford. ROW 3: P. Welch, P. Walsh, C. Raleigh, M. Fredette. ROW 4: G. Pitaniello, R. Hackett, M. Young, A. Varga.

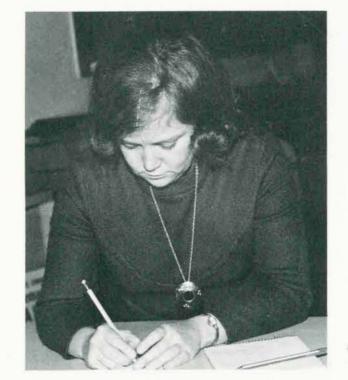

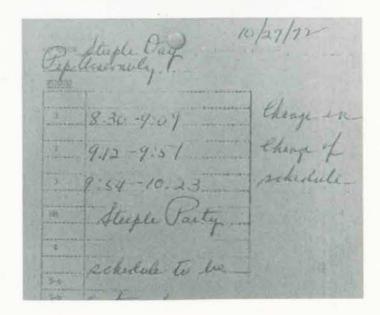

Expressing gratitude in realization of the effort of the administration to make M.S.J. a worthwhile and rewarding experience.

On this cenntennial year of the Sisters of the Order of Saint Joseph in Vermont, we would like to express a special consideration of the work done by the Sisters who have devoted their energies to keeping the school open for so long.

An affectionate expression of gratitude to people outside the immediate school community who have helped in extracurricular activities, especially SANDI LEE.

LORD, make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

GRANT that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
